GUY CLARK ILL 9 WEEKS, DIES

Well Known Business Man of Ogden Succumbs at Local Hospital Monday Night

I. GUY CLARK.

Isaac Guy Clark, prominent business man of Ogden and manager of the I. L.
Clark & Sons company, died at 7:30 o'clock last evening at a local hospital following an illness of nine weeks. The immediate cause of death was ex-anthematic goitre. Mr. Clark's illness was unknown to many and his death came as a shock to the community.

The decedent was born in Ogden, November 13, 1878, the son of Isaac L. and Romania Shaw Clark. He was educated in the public schools of this city and at Weber state academy. He began work in his father's store when a boy and grew up with the business.
A faithful member of the L. D. S. church, his activities began as a librarian in the Fourth ward Sunday school. In 1901-1902, he did missionary work in the eastern states, for the most part in New York and Boston.

After the close of the 7th quorum of the presidency of the 7th quorum of Seventies and later a member of the Y. M. M. I. A. board for the Ogden stake, afterwards being chosen president of the old Fourth ward Y. M. M.
I. A.

Mr. Clark was one of the first scout-masters when the movement was organized here and at the time of death was district scout commissioner. He served for a time as second counselor to Bishop O. M. Sanderson of the Sixth ward but was released to devote more time to his scout activities. He was also a member of the Weber club and worked on many committees for the public welfare.

On June 15, 1910, Mr. Clark was married to Marion Johnson, daughter of Jacob D. and Mary Parry Johnson.
Surviving are the widow and the following children: Audrey, Marion, Ralph and Robert, his mother, one brother, Darrel Grant Clark, a student in Chicago university medical school, and two sisters, Mrs. J. B. Foulger and Mrs. Heber Scowcroft, Jr.

The family residence is at 672 Twenty-fourth street.

City Officials in S. L. on Road Plans

Ogden city commissioners are in Salt Lake today conferring with the state road commission in regard to the paving along street car tracks on Washington avenue, north of the river bridge, and on south Washington avenue. An agreement has been reached with the officials of the street railway company for the installation of certain paving improvements on both north and south sections, according to Mayor Frank Francis, and the matter will not be taken up with the road commissioners.

Before definite action is taken in regard to the paving, residents of both north and south Washington avenue will be called into consultation with the city commission, Mayor Francis declared.

Bond Men Call on Board of Education

Representatives of Chicago, Denver and Salt Lake bond sales houses called on members of the board of education at last night's meeting of the board. As the board of education still has on hand $200,000 of the last bonds sold for completion of the work on the Central Junior high and the South Washington schools it was decided not to sell a further sum of $200,000. The present depressed state of the bond market was another factor in holding back the board from selling any further bonds at this time.

S. P. CLAMPS EMBARGO ON FREIGHT; RAILROAD OFFICIALS DENY RUMORS OF PROPOSED PARLEY WITH STRIKERS

With local strike conditions practically the same as yesterday, the consensus of opinion in railroad circles today is that switchmen will voluntarily return to their jobs within the course of a few days.

No strikebreakers have been hired in Ogden yards, it was said, and the yardmaster and his assistants continue to handle passenger traffic.

In a communication to C. S. Warner, local chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; S. M.
Welch, secretary of that organization; G. F. Laidig, local chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; and J. C. Rush, local chairman for the Brotherhood of the Locomotive Engineers, the following statement was made by J. H. Dyer, general manager of the Southern Pacific Railroad company:

"Reports are being circulated that Southern Pacific officials are about to modify the representation of the yardmen's new association to discuss their proposals for working agreements and new wage schedule.

"Wish to emphatically deny that any such step is in contemplation."

Notwithstanding information received yesterday to the effect that striking switchmen had returned to work in the majority of railroad centers of California, the most sweeping embargo which has been placed in operation on the Southern Pacific lines since the walkout, became effective today, according to word from the local Southern Pacific offices.

Superintendent B. A. Campbell, in a telegram to local officials stated that because of labor trouble that agents would refuse to accept freight for transmission between points on or by way of Southern Pacific lines.

The embargo includes all freight carsloads originated at, destined to, or to move through Portland, Brooklyn, Dunsmuir, Sparks, Carlin, Montello, Ogden, San Francisco, Santa Barbara, Oakland, Port Costa, Stockton, Tracy, Fresno, Mohave, Los Angeles, Colton and several minor points.

It also includes all perishable freight or livestock for local movement between the points specified above.

While predictions were made yesterday regarding a possible walkout of Southern Pacific shop employees, the prediction has thus far proved erroneous. It is stated, no action of this nature having been taken.

Members of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks will hold a meeting this evening, but no vote for an immediate strike is said to be contemplated.

Long Scott, a shepherd, pleaded guilty to a charge of being intoxicated.
Scott was arrested yesterday in the lobby of a local hotel by Deputy Sheriff William Brown.

He was sentenced to $50 or 50 days by Judge D. R. Roberts.

Scott, when questioned by County Attorney J. B. Bates, stated that he had been drinking a combination of elder and beer. He claimed to have taken about half a dozen drinks which, he alleged, he purchased at the soft Pratt's court.

Open War in Ogden Valley on Squirrels

C. E. Pettigrew, county crop pest inspector, A. J. Taylor, club leader, and W. Preston Thomas, farm bureau agent, are visiting the farmers of Ogden valley this afternoon to distribute 1500 pounds of poisoned oats which will be used for the purpose of attempting the extermination of ground squirrels in the valley.

"The commercial poisons are so high," said Mr. Thomas, "that we have prepared our own and are sure that the farmers of the district will find what we give them effective."

Members of the boys' and girls' clubs in the valley are to aid the county farm bureau officials in the work of distribution.

products, though potatoes and cabbages can be raised.

CLEANUP WEEK PROCLAMATION

Mayor Calls Attention of Citizens to Civic Duty
Next Week

Proclamation issued this morning by Mayor Frank Francis for Ogden's cleanup week campaign, which opens next Monday:

PROCLAMATION.
Clean Up and Paint Up and Keep It Up.

Know all men, women and children by these presents, That, whereas, the nation's cleanup week and paint up campaign has resulted in many advantages to community life throughout the United States, in safeguarding health, in promoting thrift, in furthering fire prevention, in stimulating civic pride and in making the homes and city beautiful;

Now, therefore, be it known that plans have been perfected for a thorough cleanup and paint-up campaign in Ogden, beginning April 19, this date to mark the opening of a real campaign of persistent and constructive effort in cleaning up and keeping it up. In this worthy movement I urge each citizen to do his or her part in making our community clean, healthy, thrifty, safe and beautiful.
(Signed) FRANK FRANCIS, Mayor.

Initial preparations for Ogden's cleanup and paint-up drive began this morning with the issuance of a proclamation by Mayor Frank Francis, urging every man, woman and child of Ogden to co-operate in the move. Zoning the city into five districts was completed by Dr. J. M. Elliott, city sanitary inspector, who will have direct supervision of the campaign.

In regard to the coming campaign, Dr. Elliott said this morning: "A real cleanup and paintup campaign enlists the whole community, men, women and children, in the work and in the well-thought-out plans of the community's civic leaders to unite all interests and organizations into one big active force to make the city a better place to live in and to do business in; to make the city beautiful and sanitary and safe and keep it so.

"Cleanup is the negative, the destructive, and paint up is the positive, the constructive part of the work.
You cannot paint up until you have cleaned up, and you cannot keep things actually clean and sanitary and germ-proof unless they are painted, or varnished, or enameled. Therefore, paint your walls, floors and ceilings often and you will find it a promotion to health."

"School children deserve more than slight and trivial recognition in the coming campaign, which will teach them the primary lessons in making and keeping homes and neighborhoods clean, sanitary and attractive, and in bringing to the children living and growing conditions that enable the schools to deliver to the community a worthwhile human product."
